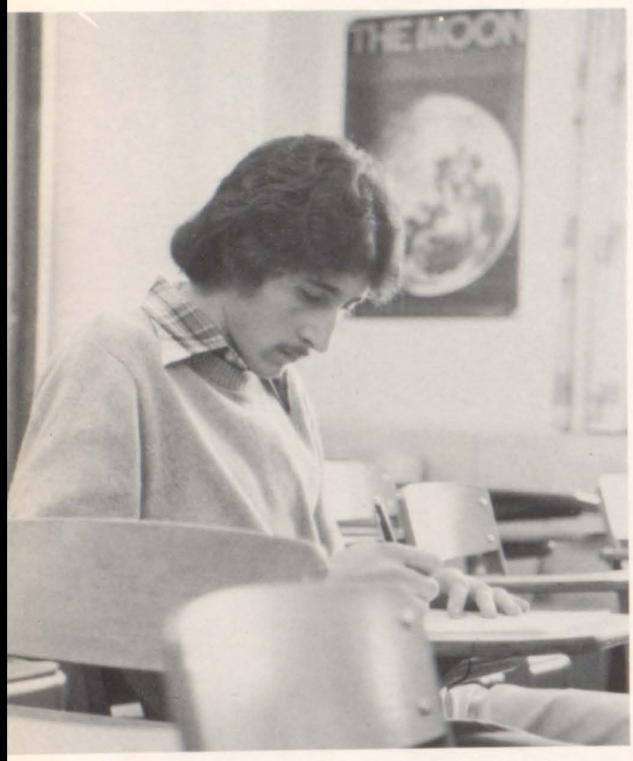
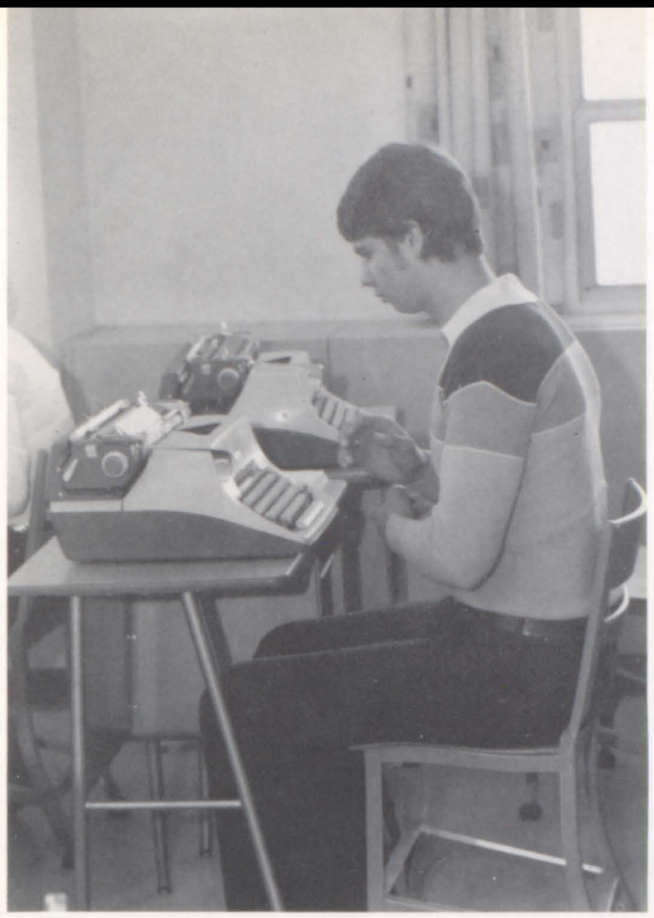
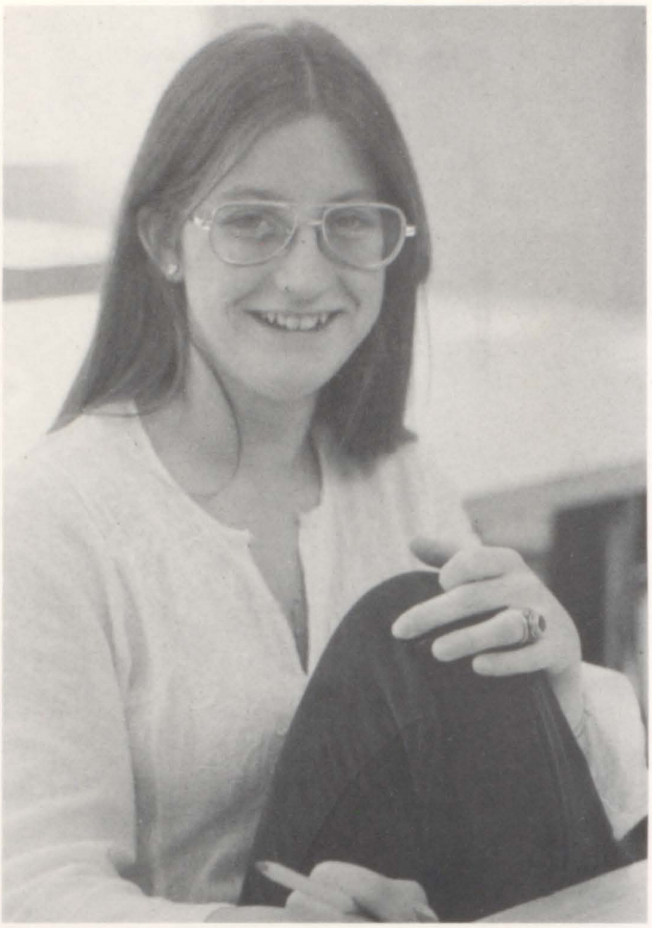
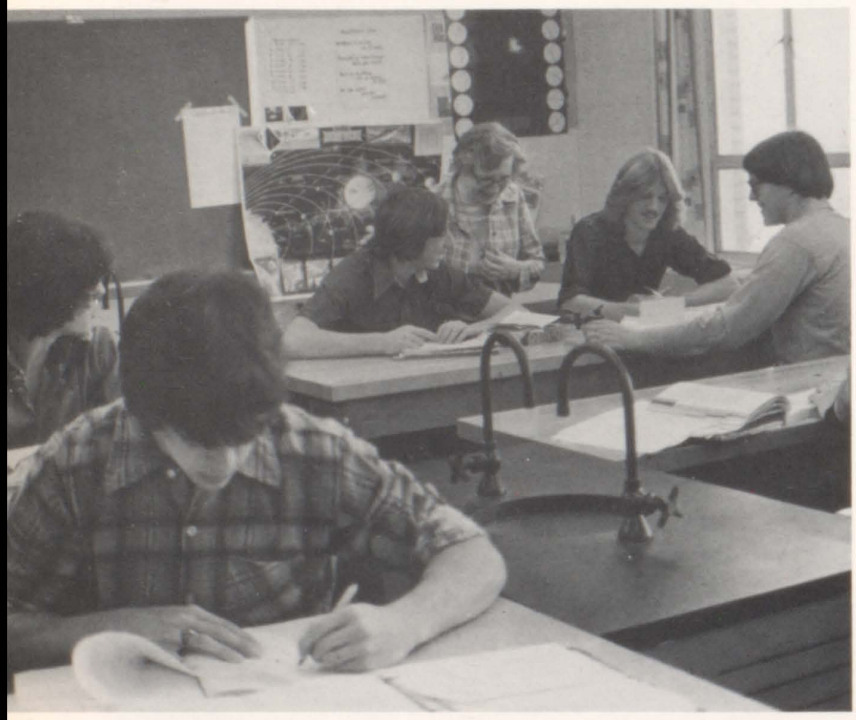
EXIT

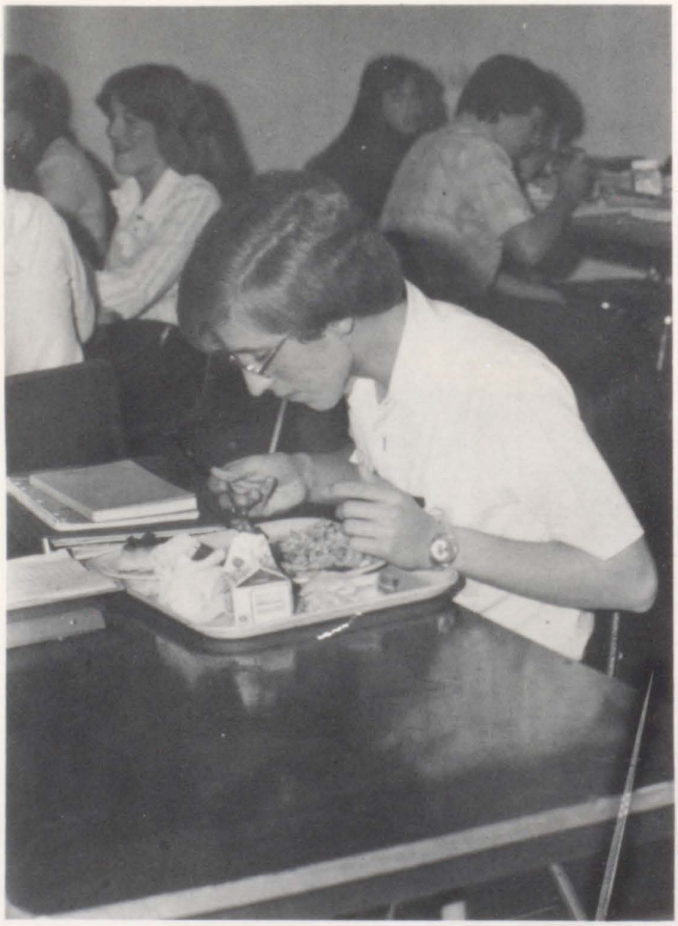


THE MOON









A mouthwatering experience?

I give up. I left my I.D. at home!

A typical Althoff student preparing for college.

father's and friends club congratulate the seniors of 1979

I would like to dedicate this to our fathers from all the Seniors. Its titled "Thanks". Thanks for caring enough to make me eat the carrots, cottage cheese, and yes, even the green beans. And for being concerned enough to say no when I asked to go steady, even though all the other third graders were doing it. Also for helping or at least trying to help me with my new math. Thanks for not getting mad when I dented the fender on our new car (well, it was just a little dent). And for keeping your cool when I had my first REAL party. Thanks for refusing to help me with the projects you knew I could do, and for helping me finish the ones I couldn't. Remember getting out of bed at 11:30 to pick me up from McDonalds and finding a half-a-dozen of my friends waiting there with me. And then finding out Suzanne lives clear on the other side of town. Thanks for building that dog house for the puppy you didn't even want me to have. And for running out just before the stores close to find that piece of pink felt I just had to have for my science project. For staying calm when I told you how much my Christmas Ball dress cost. And for being enthusiastic about coaching my Khoury league baseball team even when our record was 1 and 17. Dad, thanks for lending me the twenty bucks so I could take that special girl to Cheshire Inn. And thanks for letting me watch the Gong Show when you wanted to watch the news. Thanks for believing that I didn't cheat when everyone else thought I did. For saying "It's just what I've always wanted and in my favorite color too!" When I gave you a tie for the 4th Father's Day in a row. Thanks for making me feel good about the rest of my grades even though I got a "D" in chemistry. For eating that pie I made even though I forgot to peel the peaches. And for letting me stay out late just that once when you knew it meant so much to me. Thanks for helping me file my income tax . . . For putting the worm on the hook when we went fishing . . . And getting up early to hide Easter eggs. Especially for speaking the truth even when it wasn't what I really wanted you to say. Thanks for that hand on my shoulder when nothing else would do. I really want to say thanks for knowing that I always love you but forget to tell you. Most of all, thanks for being you.
